friendly network contact meeting “ women network project”

Ultimo aggiornamento sabato 09 maggio 2009

Object: friendly network contact meeting “ women network project” “Women network project” was born in Friuli Venezia Giulia (Italy) in 2005 to bring women together in a solidarity network. All women can join it, without cultural, social o political prejudices: the aim of the association is to promote a female politic and female candidature to obtain equal opportunity among men and women, sure that female delegations could give voice to women needs and to the entire society. This is the third year of “Women network project”: the 1st of April 2009 at 6 p.m., in Friuli Venezia Giulia Office in Bruxelles, at Rue du Commerce ,49 we will present the work developed during these three years of activities in our region to help the diffusion of a equal opportunity politics.“Women network project” thinks that putting in contact elected and not elected female members is necessary to develop international policy and to create and promote a solidarity lobby whose aim is a big and structured European network in which women can offer and obtain help.The organization of Women Network project would like to invite you to the 1st April meeting at 6 p.m. and welcome cocktail at 8 p.m. with the Italian delegacy from Friuli Venezia Giulia titled “ From women to women, network contact among European women” at Rue du Commerce , 49. This event is supported by Friuli Venezia Giulia Region. Sure that we will see you there, we stay at your disposal for further information. Thank you so muchYours faithfullyDott.arch.
